My actions have led me lone many times.
But this eeriness , this void scares me.
Its different.

I won't bother you.
May God protect you.

Bye.

I'm sorry if you feel like this because of me ,I ignore you intentionally because if I respond daily then you will get out of the track and may lose the spark from your career
I am sound rude and selfish and cold hearted because I want everyone to see my this personality , my soft side is only reserved for poor needy , animals , my family member and my husband

tf you have a husband? 🤖
The last time you said , all that was a lie .

I clearly remember that :
You were speaking on the conference call that with my friend , that night on probably 20th or 19th of May 2024 -
That you told me fake, that you got married - because you wanted me to depart.
It was burning me from inside, yet I kept myself shut, untill you confessed all of that.

I would have never entertainment feeling for a married woman. Are you fucking joking with me!

When you showed me mehendi in your hands sitting in toto in front of college, it felt like my world fall appart. ! yet I kept myself shut .

This is what I deserve for respecting you.

i don't need to validate your word from a third person.
You alone were enough to me.

Marriage is a divine thing to me; Alafia.
One mistakenly ignore the state of it.

Not interested .

It was me, the clown, grinding 14hrs a day, burning my health off, landing job in Kolkata - that you would be convinced to let me meet your elders right in October.

Fuck all gratitude. It was all fun for you.

I really thought, with time, the river will bring flowers to my baren valley.
There will be birds, a little house with sprinklers creating a rainbow in our garden.
The river just flooded.

Typing this with shaky hands, once again.
